SSG BASHEER ABDULLAH

SSG Basheer Abdullah entered the Army in 1984 as a light-wheeled-vehicle mechanic. As a boxer, he was nationally ranked third in his weight class. As a coach, Abdullah's accomplishments include guiding the Army to five medals during the U.S. National Championships and winning the National team title. From 1997 to 2002 he coached the Army to six armed forces team titles. In 2000 Abdullah was an Olympic Boxing Team technical adviser.

WCAP is one of 50 morale, welfare and recreation programs the Army provides soldiers and families worldwide through the U.S. Army Community & Family Support Center.
